If you would like to maintain a continuing link with this beautiful church, why not become a Friend?

A message from Bishop Richard:

“ The Cathedral Church of Our Lady & St. Philip Howard is both a beautiful building and the Mother Church of the Diocese of Arundel & Brighton.

Standing, as it does, above the town of Arundel, it is a constant reminder of God's presence in the world and is a place of prayer and peace for all who visit.

By joining the Friends of the Cathedral, you will contribute to the life and work of this wonderful church that is a focus for the life of the Diocese through prayer, social events and through your financial support.

Thank you for reading this leaflet - please take the next step by becoming a Friend of Arundel Cathedral. ”

THE FRIENDS OF
ARUNDEL CATHEDRAL

THE CATHEDRAL OF OUR LADY
AND SAINT PHILIP HOWARD
Arundel, West Sussex

THE PIETÀ OF ARUNDEL CATHEDRAL

THE CORPUS CHRISTI CARPET OF FLOWERS

BRIEF HISTORY

Built between 1869 and 1872, Arundel Cathedral owes its existence to the generosity of Henry, XV Duke of Norfolk. The architect, Joseph Hansom (the inventor of the Hansom Cab but well-known as a church architect) was inspired by the architectural grandeur of the French Gothic style of the early fifteenth century. The Cathedral is well known for its famous Corpus Christi Carpet of Flowers which was introduced over 100 years ago by the XV Duke of Norfolk. Coinciding with the new formation of the Arundel and Brighton Diocese in 1965, the parish church became its Cathedral. Following Saint Philip Howard's canonization in 1970, the dedication was changed to The Cathedral of Our Lady and Saint Philip Howard. His relics are buried in his tomb at the Cathedral, which has become a modern place of pilgrimage. Today there is a space in the life of the Cathedral that can only be filled by you!
